LARGE FIRE IN HANDOVER. The extensive machine shop department of the American Machine and Foundry Company, together with the blacksmith shop, was destroyed by fire which broke out shortly before three o'clock Sunday morning.

The American Machine and Foundry Co., of which Messrs. Hanson Hestley, vice-president, and P. M. Brown, treasurer, are the local representatives, owned the shops of the Handover Foundry & Machine Co. in April, 1900, for a period of ten years, and have been making constant additions to the plant ever since. They were gored with orders, and in the shops destroyed 500 men were employed. Gasoline and electric machines, tobacco grating machines and other high grade specialties were their product.

Information from reliable sources tends to the belief that the destroyed parts of the company's works will be rebuilt, most likely on a larger and better site than the old establishment.

The Handover Realty Co., who are the owners of the burned buildings and part of the machinery, pattern, etc., contained in the building, estimated the loss at $400,000. This loss is offset by a total insurance of $100,000.

Treasurer T. M. Brown estimates the loss on operating machinery, patterns, finished machinery, etc., owned by the company, at from $75,000 to $100,000.

Skeletons Found. While workmen were digging a trench in the rear of the lot occupied by Mrs. Nusselman, on West Middle street, last Wednesday, the skeletons of three grown persons were unearthed. From appearance and the location of the bones it was evident that they had been re-interred some years ago.

There was nothing found to indicate whether the bones were of religious origin, and the authorities decided to bury them together in the Altoona-bone graveyard.

The house then standing on the lot and also the Catholic church, on High street, were used as hospitals during the battle here, and it may be that the bodies came from them.

Court Notes. Sale of real estate of Louisa M. Bokenrieder, deceased, awarded to Wm. J. Bokenrieder, administrator of said deceased, and bond approved.

In the Common Pleas, Sheriff Morrison was granted a rule to determine the ownership of property claimed by Henry C. Bishop, and levied on as the property of J. W. Snyder.

UNION VETERAN LEGION ENCAMPMENT.

To be held in Gettysburg October 10th and 11th.

The 10th annual encampment of the Union Veteran Legion will be held here October 10th and 11th, 1901. The society of old soldiers was organized in the city of Pottsville in the evening, and they now number 135 encampments, located in the states that were loyal during the great war from '61 to '65. To be eligible to membership the applicant must be a citizen of the United States, and must have served for three years and served at least two years of active service, or must have been a member of the army or navy during the war.

The great majority of these men belong to the Army of the Potomac and fought at Gettysburg, and the gathering of these old soldiers with their wives and friends on this historic battlefield promises to be the largest encampment ever held by the order. With the re-union of the Bucktail Brigade at the same time we expect our town to be well filled, but no one need stay away on account of accommodations, as with the splendid hotel facilities we have and the many private boarding houses we will be able to care of all who come. As this is the first time this organization has met in Gettysburg, we expect our town to receive a warm reception and we know our people will look up their flags and banners and decorate their residences in order to show their appreciation of the courage of the men who made our town famous.

On the evening of the 10th a camp fire and reception will be held in Xavier Hall, to which our people are cordially invited. Our general fellow-citizen, Geo. O. H. T. Collins, will deliver the address of welcome. It will be responded to by the National Commander, Wm. R. Wooters, Esq., of Philadelphia.

The sessions of the encampment will be held in the evening instead of day-time, in order to give every member an opportunity to attend the ball.

The following local committees have been appointed:

On Reception—Hon. W. T. Ziegler, chairman, Geo. C. H. T. Collins, Esq., W. H. Tipton, Esq., R. D. Kitzmiller, J. L. Williams, Esq., Wm. F. F. Esq., and G. H. Holtzworth.

On Accommodations—H. T. Weaver, chairman, Penrose Myers, Esq., and J. H. Holtzworth.

The committee on Finance is not yet named, but when it is named it will be a committee of men who will give financial aid to the encampment.

The ladies' organization connected with the encampment will hold its sessions in the Court-house at the same time.

BASE BALL. In a game abounding in beautiful plays Gettysburg defeated the Monarchs, of Altoona, yesterday by a score of 13 to 0. The Monarchs had lately scored a shut-out on Atlantic City and were looked upon as a formidable team, but young Frank's effective pitching, coupled with the hard and timely hitting of the boys, had the best of two sessions, made the victory comparatively easy.

A general chase was noticed in the home runs, Sherry running six places at first, Matting going to second, Gray going behind the bat and Wolf to left field, and the new combination worked well.

The features of the game were the fast fielding of all the Gettysburg infielders, the batting of Gray, Matting, Sherry and Holtzworth, and the splendid work of Frank in the box. He had perfect control, lots of speed and let down the Monarchs with only five scattered hits. The score follows:

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, July 26th, at the house of his parents on 15th street, Theodore Franklin McAllister, son of Hon. and Mrs. Theodore McAllister, died after a short illness of typhoid fever, aged 24 years and 13 days. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Saturday morning, July 28th, at 10 o'clock, officiating, Rev. D. W. Woods, Jr., officiating. The following composed the special choir which rendered the music: Misses Coraella Walter and Annie Wolf, Charles H. Dardoff and Milton R. Neumann. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, the remains being borne by John McAllister, Harry Monfort and J. H. McCullough.

In the death of T. Frank McAllister the town loses one of its most promising young men. He and his family were very successful school teacher and his college course was intended by him as preliminary to a law career. His removal to Gettysburg his circle of friends has continually widened. His very even disposition, his kindly sympathy, devoted to duty, his moral character and modesty endeared him to all his acquaintances.

In the Presbyterian church, to which he belonged, his services were very many. Wherever he could do anything he stood ready and willing, in spite of a severe case of typhoid fever, to assist in the religious work. For several years he had been a member of the Sunday school. His place will be hard to fill.

One of the charter members of the American Club, he was elected its first speaker and presided with acceptance to all the club's affairs. In the club the members knew he would always insist on the moral view of any question.

For lives so clean and pure as his he must have been a great blessing to his family. His death is a great loss to his family and to the community.
